

I urge the FCC to remove the Morse Code requirements from all Amature Radio License classes. It is like requireing someone to demenstrate proficiency in riding a horse before being able to obtain a drivers license. Morse code is an art not a technical proficiency.